

JOHN WANAMAKER.
"To discount advertising is the taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the people know it."
Keep everybody at it.

We manufacture and have for sale by the single barrel or car load, four grades of Flour, as follows:

None Such.

Fancy Patent of the highest quality that never fails to please the most fastidious. Retail price per bbl. and we pay the freight.

$6.00

Daily Bread.

Fancy Bakers, getting fine color and strength, and in great favor with the hundreds who have it in daily use.

$5.50
per bbl. and we pay the freight.

Satisfaction.

Choice Family of good quality at the moderate price of

$4.50
per bbl. in cotton and we pay the freight.

Boyd's Entire.

Straight grade, composed of all three of the above, and possessing the good qualities of all in a high degree.

$5.50
per bbl. and we pay the freight.

If your Grocer does not handle our flour, send your money and orders to us and they will have prompt attention. Respectfully,

Irvington Milling Co.,
IRVINGTON, KY.

Louisville, St. Louis & Texas R. Co.

NO. 18.
TIME SCHEDULE

At 5:00 o'clock A. M. Wednesday July 20, '91

West Bound Trains	East Bound Trains
STATIONS	STATIONS
6:00 a.m. 7:00 a.m. 8:00 a.m. 9:00 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:00 a.m. 12:00 m. 1:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:00 p.m. 6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m.	6:00 a.m. 7:00 a.m. 8:00 a.m. 9:00 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:00 a.m. 12:00 m. 1:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:00 p.m. 6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m.

Louisville, Hardinsburg & Western R. R.

NO. 2 TIME TABLE

West Bound Trains	East Bound Trains
STATIONS	STATIONS
6:00 a.m. 7:00 a.m. 8:00 a.m. 9:00 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:00 a.m. 12:00 m. 1:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:00 p.m. 6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m.	6:00 a.m. 7:00 a.m. 8:00 a.m. 9:00 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:00 a.m. 12:00 m. 1:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 3:00 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:00 p.m. 6:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:00 p.m. 9:00 p.m. 10:00 p.m. 11:00 p.m. 12:00 a.m.

THE LOUISVILLE & ST. LOUIS AIR LINE.

(L. & S. A. L. L. R. R.)

SHORTEST, QUICKEST AND BEST LINE TO

St. Louis, Evansville
AND ALL POINTS

West and South-West.

Time-card in Effect Sept. 1890.

For further information, call on or address

R. A. CAMPBELL,
Gen'l Pass. Agt., Evansville, Ind.

R. A. CAMPBELL,
City Ticket Office, S. W. Cor. Th & Main St. Louisville, Ky.

"BANKERS" advertisement

PLES

CHAPTER VII.

WE ARE CAREFUL FOR TWO NOBLE WOMEN.

The security of fruit and the fact that southern planters did not pay much attention to the cultivation of vegetables made the south a difficult country for fugitives like Bell and myself to pass through. The only way we could get food in mid-July was to come into direct contact with the people for whom we now and then made a raid on a hen roost, the empty was uncertain and the risk very great.

Made desperate by hunger and the sore fatigue of our long march from South Carolina we left the houses in which we had been sleeping and made straight for a pretentious looking house, with an avenue of giant herons bordering the driveway that led up to its wide piazza.

It was arranged so we drove near that I should do the talking. Standing on the steps we removed our hats, and the ladies rose and looked at us first in alarm, but as I told them my story of hunger, wounds and sickness, and in a little food to enable us to get to our home in the mountains, I was released to their own words. They were not their faces, and they invited us up and had chairs brought for us, and the younger women went off to order us something to eat.

Just before daylight we came to a halt on the banks of a stream, which we hoped was the Savannah, and waited for daylight. When light came, the width and character of the river convinced us we were right, but it needed no assurance to assure me that it could not be forded at that point. We had to wait until about noon, when we found a drift log on the shore to which Bell could cling, and without hesitation we launched it and pushed out. I do not think I ever met a man with more physical courage than my companion. In his eyes he saw the awful look in his eyes as he clung to that log, while I swim and pushed it along. I shall never forget.

The undertaking was not difficult, but when I reached a place where it was safe for my friend to drop down his legs and abandon the log, we both were a fervent "Thank God!" The Georgia shore was rocky and wooded, and as we were hurried to a position from which we could not be seen from the South Carolina side. We swung out our raft, after finding that the logs afforded many places for concealment we decided to remain there till dark. As we were not yet in the night, we slept till late in the afternoon, by which time our fatigue had gone and we were as hungry as wolves.

I believed, from the time we left Miami, that Sherman's army would be on the mountains, but Bell's heart was set on the mountains, and as he "knew the Blue Ridge as well as his own back," he yielded again, and we made up our minds to travel in the direction of sunset.

The sun had set and we had gone about a mile, leaving the river on our right, when we came to a clearing, and above the trees at the other side we saw a smoke plume that indicated a house.

Walking along the fence we came to a road leading toward the house, but the deep, bell-like baying of dogs on the mountain sent our hearts into our mouths and made us run back to the woods again.

After concluding that the dogs were not after us we moved on more, and at length reached a good looking house, the logs of which were in the direction. We met a woman and a number of horsemen, but we took care that they did not see us.

About midnight we met a man on foot who was drunk, and seemed to have lost his home and his bearings. He told us that he had been a soldier. "The best soldier ever sent out of here," he declared, "I was sent to Georgia," he declared. He further informed us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

CHAPTER VII.

WE ARE CAREFUL FOR TWO NOBLE WOMEN.

The security of fruit and the fact that southern planters did not pay much attention to the cultivation of vegetables made the south a difficult country for fugitives like Bell and myself to pass through. The only way we could get food in mid-July was to come into direct contact with the people for whom we now and then made a raid on a hen roost, the empty was uncertain and the risk very great.

Made desperate by hunger and the sore fatigue of our long march from South Carolina we left the houses in which we had been sleeping and made straight for a pretentious looking house, with an avenue of giant herons bordering the driveway that led up to its wide piazza.

It was arranged so we drove near that I should do the talking. Standing on the steps we removed our hats, and the ladies rose and looked at us first in alarm, but as I told them my story of hunger, wounds and sickness, and in a little food to enable us to get to our home in the mountains, I was released to their own words. They were not their faces, and they invited us up and had chairs brought for us, and the younger women went off to order us something to eat.

Just before daylight we came to a halt on the banks of a stream, which we hoped was the Savannah, and waited for daylight. When light came, the width and character of the river convinced us we were right, but it needed no assurance to assure me that it could not be forded at that point. We had to wait until about noon, when we found a drift log on the shore to which Bell could cling, and without hesitation we launched it and pushed out. I do not think I ever met a man with more physical courage than my companion. In his eyes he saw the awful look in his eyes as he clung to that log, while I swim and pushed it along. I shall never forget.

The undertaking was not difficult, but when I reached a place where it was safe for my friend to drop down his legs and abandon the log, we both were a fervent "Thank God!" The Georgia shore was rocky and wooded, and as we were hurried to a position from which we could not be seen from the South Carolina side. We swung out our raft, after finding that the logs afforded many places for concealment we decided to remain there till dark. As we were not yet in the night, we slept till late in the afternoon, by which time our fatigue had gone and we were as hungry as wolves.

I believed, from the time we left Miami, that Sherman's army would be on the mountains, but Bell's heart was set on the mountains, and as he "knew the Blue Ridge as well as his own back," he yielded again, and we made up our minds to travel in the direction of sunset.

The sun had set and we had gone about a mile, leaving the river on our right, when we came to a clearing, and above the trees at the other side we saw a smoke plume that indicated a house.

Walking along the fence we came to a road leading toward the house, but the deep, bell-like baying of dogs on the mountain sent our hearts into our mouths and made us run back to the woods again.

After concluding that the dogs were not after us we moved on more, and at length reached a good looking house, the logs of which were in the direction. We met a woman and a number of horsemen, but we took care that they did not see us.

About midnight we met a man on foot who was drunk, and seemed to have lost his home and his bearings. He told us that he had been a soldier. "The best soldier ever sent out of here," he declared, "I was sent to Georgia," he declared. He further informed us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years. He told us that he had been kept on for about ten or fifteen years.

Lines to a Friend.

BY E. A. M.

Long years have passed since last we met, And varied scenes have met our gaze, But still I find memories linger yet, Of happy days when we were young.

Thoughtful of care, or angry at peace, Of hopes and fears, or of the things we loved, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

In which was written a tale of woe— Of a lover's death, and a young man's fate, Of aspirations cherished then, And fond desires that were broken.

But as we near the river's brink, Of childhood's dream, as years ago, And darker aspects look, The pages that to youth were fair, We're lengthened in a sad and lonely book.

post the last training session.

ere and are citizens of the town, and

The delegates were instructed to cast their vote at the District Convention for Hon. Chas. Blanford as Delegate from the Fourth Congressional District, to the National Convention.

Mr. G. P. Jolly addressed the meeting with a few vigorous remarks that were warmly applauded.

The utmost good feelings prevailed.

JOHN P. HASWELL, JR. Chm.
ERNE R. ENKEDGE, Sec'y.

OPIMUM
A. LITTLE, CHAS. LITTLE & CO.,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

CORRESPONDENCE INVITED. ACCOUNTS INVE

Job Printing At this office done in the best and at moderate prices

Job Printing At this office done in the best style and at moderate prices.

